

Everyday Materials Knowledge Organiser

There are lots of different types of materials and they are all good for making different things because they have different properties.

Wood

We can make tables, chairs and some toys from wood because it is hard. It can be rough or smooth.

Metal

We can make cars, spoons and some musical instruments from metal because it is hard and smooth. You can't see through it.

Glass

We can make windows, mirrors and glasses from glass because it is hard and see through. It is very fragile.

Plastic

We can make toys and food packaging from plastic because it is smooth and strong. It can be hard or bendy.

Rubber

We can make wellington boots, car tyres and bouncy balls from rubber because it is squashy and waterproof. You can bend it.

Paper

We can make wrapping paper and books from paper because it is smooth. It can tear easily.

Rock

We can make tiles and some jewellery from rock because it can be hard. Some rock can also be fragile.

Fabric

We can make clothes and bedding from fabric because it is soft. It is usually smooth.

Brick

We can make buildings from brick because it is very hard. It can be rough.

