Home Learning Challenge
The Incredible Egyptians

As Writers you could:

- Plan and write a story about a famous person from Ancient Egypt.
- Imagine you have travelled down the River Nile. Write a recount of your journey, think about what you could see, hear and smell.
- Write a set of instructions on how to mummify a body!
- Write a poem about Ancient Egypt.

As Historians you could:

- Use books or the internet to find out more about Tutankhamun.
- Create a fact sheet about life in Ancient Egypt. Think about homes, clothes, schools and food.

As Mathematicians you could:

- Investigate Egyptian symbols for number and create a maths quiz for your friends.

As Artists and Designers you could:

- Create an Ancient Egyptian scene. This could be drawn, painted or 3D.
- Research and design an Egyptian tomb.
- Make a mummy!

As Computer Scientists you could:

- Create a Power Point about the Ancient Egyptians. Try to tell your friends something they didn't already know!

Here are some ideas for this half term's home learning. Let's see if everybody can complete at least one challenge. You are, of course, welcome to do more than one! Challenges are to be completed over the half term and should be brought into school by Monday 15th December. I will look forward to seeing your completed challenges.
Any questions, please come and see me.
